

JOIN OUR

$2.00 to Join

SEWING MACHINE CLUB

$1.00 Per Week

and secure a

Standard or New Home

The World's Best Sewing Machines

Our new club opens for enrollment of members Wednesday, March 29th.

Select the Machine you desire, pay $2.00 down and $1.00 per week thereafter until paid for.

There are just eight machines that we are going to sell in this club on the above terms. Don't delay, as there are not enough in this lot to go around.

Prices $27.50 to $45.00. FULLY GUARANTEED.

As soon as you join the Machine is delivered to your home. No waiting. No delay.

You Have It to Use While Paying for It.

$1.00 Per Week

The Homer Fitts Co.

The Store of Thrifty People

$1.00 Per Week

Snappy Spring Styles

Are now ready in the famous Lamson & Hubbard hats. Examine them critically—their superior style—their exquisite lustre, and the evidence of care and skill used in their manufacture.

For over 30 years L. & H. Hats have been made "just right," and they are better today than ever.

The Frank McWhorter Co.
Blanchard Bldg., Barre, Vt.

invite your inspection of the L. & H. line of stylish distinctive hats.

Barre should have a plant to manufacture building granite and not let our neighbors obtain the new industry.

FREE MILK

We have about 400 quarts of Skimmed Milk which we will be pleased to give away free each day during the remainder of this month, not over a gallon to a customer. Just bring a pail, and this ad. cut from this paper.

L. B. Dodge
300 N. Main St., Barre, Vt. Tel. 253-3

Miss Nelson wishes to thank those who attended the SPRING OPENING Saturday and owing to the large crowd who were not properly accommodated

MISS NELSON
WILL CONTINUE THE
Spring Opening
Monday and Tuesday, March 27 and 28

Mrs. F. H. Patch who has had many years' experience as trimmer in the BETTER class of millinery will combine your ideas with her knowledge and the spring styles.

Husky Throats

Quickly relieved by using Drown's Bronchial Lozenges, both Plain and Mentholated.

Price, ten cents per box.

E. A. DROWN
Prescription Druggist, 48 No. Main St., Barre, Vermont

TALK OF THE TOWN.

"I'm a Married Man."

Summer style books at Fitts.

Yard wide Roughman silk, 85c at Abbott's.

New wrappers with pocket. Special, 79c, at Vaughan's.

A pretty display of spring gingham and wash goods at Perry's.

Ten per cent. discount sale closes on Wednesday night at Vaughan's.

Rubber coats and rain coats for the small boy from the Frank McWhorter Co.

Miss Grace Houston has returned to her home in Northfield, after passing the week-end with relatives in the city.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

Principal James C. Walker, of the Whitcomb high school, Bethel, and Mrs. Walker and daughter, arrived yesterday to pass a few days with relatives here.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Children's rain capes at Vaughan's.

Buy your sewing machines at Fitts.

Get your children's coats for spring, at Perry's.

See what Fitts is doing with sewing machines.

Only five more days in which to license your dog.

Otto coke for sale at Calder and Richardson's, $2.50 per ton.

Peter Bolton of Itherville, P. Q., is spending several days with friends in the city.

The last call on fur goods from the Frank McWhorter Co., as we shall store this week.

Miss Bernice Prindle and Miss Ruth Huse went yesterday afternoon to Waterbury, where they will visit friends for a few days.

The regular meeting of Granite City Lodge, No. 533, N. E. O. P., will be held in their hall Tuesday evening, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

S. C. Butcher, who has been visiting friends in this city and vicinity for the past two weeks, left yesterday for his home in Utica, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dadman returned yesterday afternoon to their home in St. Armand, P. Q., after passing a week with friends in the city.

Mrs. Edith Lawrence, who has been passing a week at her home in West Townsend, has resumed her duties as ticket agent at the Central Vermont station.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. J. W. Jackson Tuesday evening at 7:15 o'clock, for the business meeting, will the members please come prepared to pay federation dues?

Members of Barre lodge, No. 138, N. E. O. P., remember that all dues and assessments must be paid on or before the first of April or you will be suspended from the order. P. M. Cutler, sec.

Painters, attention! Local 185, Painters and Decorators, will hold its next regular meeting in painters' hall Tuesday, March 28, at 7:30 p. m. Every member is requested to attend. Important business. A. M. Stafford, R. S.

The young people's association of the Presbyterian church will hold a concert and sale of work in the church basement on Thursday evening, March 30th. A splendid program will be given and aprons, handkerchiefs and candy will be on sale. Admission 10 cents.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impassive faces. Strangely, too, the familiar faces of the martyred McKinley and Admiral Dewey failed to send the patriotic tremors up and down the spine.

Once more came the big stick to the rescue when all seemed lost. Bearing down upon a snow white charger, the mighty jungle hunter and hero of San Juan came to the front; and instantly followed a tremendous uproar of applause that did not die down for several minutes. All of which shows that G. W., and others have a place in the little red histories, but it takes Teddy to deliver the goods.

That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president and stimulator of the "recall" agitation, still has a pretty strong grip on the hearts of this countrymen—in Barre, at least—was rather forcibly brought home at one of the local motion picture houses the other night.

While two of the "vaudevillians" were closing their act with a soft-pedal melody of national anthems, several colored lantern slides of famous Americans and bloody battlefields lent a realistic touch to the music. Fittingly enough the likeness of George Washington first appeared. But the father of his country looked out over a sea of impass